

Press release 02/06/24 – Brussels

Dmytro Udovychenko wins the 2024 Violin Competition!

The International Queen Elisabeth Grand Prize - Queen Mathilde Prize receives EUR 25.000 and numerous concerts in Belgium and abroad. Dmytro Udovychenko will also have the honour to play the 'Huggins' 1708 Stradivarius for four years, on loan by the Nippon Music Foundation.

The ranking of the laureates

INTERNATIONAL QUEEN ELISABETH GRAND PRIZE: €25.000

First Prize - Queen Mathilde Prize

Dmytro Udovychenko

BELGIAN FEDERAL GOVERNMENT PRIZE: €20.000

Second Prize, awarded by the Belgian Science Policy

Joshua Brown

COUNT DE LAUNOIT PRIZE: €17.000

Third Prize

Elli Choi

PRIZE OF THE GOVERNMENTS OF THE BELGIAN COMMUNITIES: €12.500

Fourth Prize, this year awarded by the Government of the German-speaking Community of Belgium

Kevin Zhu

BRUSSELS-CAPITAL REGION PRIZE: €10.000

Fifth Prize

Julian Rhee

CITY OF BRUSSELS PRIZE: €8.000

Sixth Prize

Minami Yoshida

WITH THE SUPPORT OF THE NATIONAL LOTTERY

each of the six unranked laureates will receive €4.000.

Hana Chang

SongHa Choi

Anna Im

Karen Su

Ruslan Talas

Dayoon You

Joshua Brown wins the Musiq3 Prize and the VRT CANVAS/Klara Prize.

More about the laureates on our website

Replay

Thanks to the live streaming that has brought their performances around the world, the candidates have received unprecedented attention as from the very start of the Violin Competition. The live stream was available on several platforms, including our own website. The semi-final and final were also successfully broadcast on the radio and television channels of Belgian broadcasters VRT and RTBF.

All the performances of Violin 2024 can be replayed on our website www.queenelisabethcompetition.be.

Concerts

We kick off with the recitals by the unranked laureates on Wednesday 5 June and Thursday 6 June at 8.15pm at Flagey.

The laureates' concert, with the 4th, 5th and 6th laureates and the Antwerp Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Tung-Chieh Chuang, will take place on Monday 10 June at 8.15 pm in the Brussels Centre for Fine Arts. The concert will be broadcast live on Klara. The same concert also takes place at the Queen Elisabeth Hall in Antwerp, on Friday 7 June, and at the Concertgebouw in Bruges, on Saturday 8 June.

The closing concert with the 1st, 2nd and 3rd laureates and the Orchestre Philharmonique Royal de Liège conducted by Nuno Coelho, is scheduled on Wednesday 12 June at 8.15 pm in the Brussels Centre for Fine Arts. The concert will be broadcast live on Musiq3, Klara and VRT MAX, and will later also be shown on Auvio, La Trois, Arte Concert and VRT CANVAS.

The first three laureates will also perform in Namur (Thursday 13 June, Namur Concert Hall), Sankt Vith (Friday 14 June, Kulturzentrum Triangel), Bruges (Saturday 15 June, Concertgebouw), and Liège (Tuesday 18 June, Salle Philharmonique).

On Saturday 29 June, the RTBF's audience favourite, Joshua Brown, gets to perform at the Festival Musiq3 in Flagey.

Up-to-date information regarding dates and reservation options is available in the concert calendar on our website.

4CD box

"Violin 2024" will be available as of Saturday 8 June, containing works performed by the laureates during the semi-final and the final. Find out the programme of the box set as from Monday 3 June on shop.queenelisabethcompetition.be.

Press contact

press@queenelisabethcompetition.be - +32 2 213 40 50

Free access (no login) to visuals and press releases in the press page on www.queenelisabethcompetition.be