Programme of the semi-final

At each session, which consists of two parts, four different semi-finalists are scheduled. The first two play a Mozart concerto, to be chosen from concertos K. 207 (No. 1 in B flat major), K. 211 (No.2 in D major) and K. 218 (No. 4 in D major), accompanied by the Orchestre Royal de Chambre de Wallonie, conducted by Vahan Mardirossian.

After the break, the other two perform their recital with piano accompaniment. The jury will choose one of two recital programmes proposed by the candidate, each including works of the candidate's choice and the compulsory unpublished work written especially for this year's edition by Charlotte Bray, The Sun and her Flowers (world première on Monday 13 May 2024 at 3pm). The composer will be present the entire week and will be available for interviews.

The jury's choice is communicated to the candidates the day before their recital and will then be indicated in the calendar on our website.
